

Felicia A. Libo, Tutor

Education

MA, Psychology, University of Colorado/Denver, 2000
Licensed Professional Counselor, 2003
Accredited Financial Counselor candidate, 2008
BLA, University of Oregon, 1982

Selected Professional Experience

Licensed Professional Counselor (2000 – present)

Financial Health Counselor (2008 – present)

Work with adolescents and adults, specializing in test preparation and anxiety, financial counseling and life transitions.

Counseling Intern, Escalante Middle School (2000)

Provided individual and group counseling services for adolescents.
Co-facilitator of the Eating Disorder Prevention Project, Durango High School (2000).

Oso Energy/Cirque Resources (1998-2008)

Financial/HR Manager

The Leland House and Rochester Hotel, Durango, CO (2003-04)

Communication Consultant

Helped employees improve communication and manage stress.

Brave New Words Consulting, Durango, CO (1988-1998)

Consultant & Counselor

Helped clients write and edit resumes and clarify career direction and goals.

Fort Lewis College, Durango, CO (1986-1988)

Continuing Education Instructor

Taught computer and creative writing courses.

Durango Herald, Durango, CO (1984-1990)

Columnist (1985-1990)

Wrote weekly column for parents. Reviewed theatre performances and books for Arts and Entertainment sections.

Publications

Published articles in E Magazine, Weight Watchers, Your Health, New York Times, Durango Herald and Colorado Arts; editor for non-fiction book projects.

Organizations & Memberships

President's Advisory Council on Financial Literacy
Association for Financial Counseling and Planning Education
National Institute of Health Sister Study
Tibetan Nuns Project
Women's Resource Center of Durango

Specialties

Test anxiety and preparation, GED, Writing (middle school through college), financial literacy