

JAKE MILBURN-LAUER, M.Ed

Tutor

EDUCATION

Smith College, Northampton, MA (2006)
Master of Arts in Teaching -- History

Colorado State University, Fort Collins, CO (2002)
Major: B.A. in Journalism/Technical Communication
Minor: Spanish

WORK HISTORY

Social Studies Teacher, Santa Cruz City Schools, CA (Dec. 2007-June 2008)

- Long-term substitute teacher at Soquel High School
- Created curriculum for 9th and 10th grade World Cultures and Geography class
- Students were all in an honors-track program called Humanities Academy
- Assisted an administrator with finishing a semester class of A.P. Government

Assistant Coach, Cabrillo College Baseball, Santa Cruz, CA (Sept. 2007-June 2008)

- Assisted in all aspects of college baseball program
- Primary duties included coaching catchers and infielders
- Designed and monitored workout program for team

World History Teacher, Santa Cruz City Schools, CA (Summer 2007)

- Taught World History to two classes of 30 students
- Created curriculum to fit one-month summer school session

Special Education Teacher, Davis Joint Unified School District, CA (March-June 2007)

- Long-term substitute teacher hired to create program for emotionally disturbed students in junior high school
- Developed curriculum for full-day class covering all academic topics

E.L.L. Coordinator, Archuleta County Education Center, Pagosa Springs, CO (Fall 2006)

- Designed and taught language curriculum for non-English speakers
- Students ranged in age from teenagers to adults

Student Teacher, Northampton High School, Northampton, MA. (Spring 2006)

- Prepared and delivered educational objectives and lesson plans for 9-12th grade students in two U.S history classes.

Project Supervisor/Founding Team Member, Project Coach, Smith College, Springfield and Holyoke, MA. (2005-2006)

- Objective: leadership/mentorship through coaching in high-risk communities.
- Developed and taught youth leadership course for 12 high school aged youth leaders/coaches.
- Supervised leaders/coaches in Springfield/Holyoke Youth Sports League.

Lead Naturalist Intern, Sierra Outdoor School, Sonora, CA. (2003-05)

- Developed curriculum and taught science and adventure classes to groups of 20-35 ages 10-18 at outdoor science school.
- Mentored and trained new staff

Lead Instructor/Instructor, Outward Bound West, Leadville, CO. (Summers 2003-04)

- Guided students ages 14-35 on wilderness mountaineering courses in the Colorado Rocky Mountains, 14-23 days in length.
- Developed curriculum in outdoor survival and team-building.

CERTIFICATIONS

- Colorado Secondary Social Sciences teaching credential

ADDITIONAL SKILLS

- Competent Spanish speaker.
- Former editor-in-chief of daily college newspaper and former professional newspaper journalist.

SPECIALTIES

- Social Studies, History, Government, Economics, College Applications, Spanish, ESL